THE NAVAL REVIEW.

Everything Ready For the Great Event.

FLEET NOW IN NORTH RIVER.

Its Passage Up the Channel Witnessed by Hundreds of Thousands of People. A Magnificent Sight—Preparations All Complete For the Great Ball.

New York, April 27.—The naval review fleet of 35 vessels, representing in its show of war not only the sovereignty of 10 nations and their great idea of international fraternity, but also the growth in 400 years of science as typified in marine construction, moved up the North river in two columns, the Americans on the New Jersey side and most of the visitors on the New York side, and took their official stations, from which they will salute President Cleveland as he passes between the columns. Then the official salutes will be ended and the visitors will be in the category of war vessels visiting in the harbor.

The warships, in moving down the Hudson, can not surpass the grand maritime pageant of yesterday, although they may be more attractive while anchored in line for the review as the Dolphin, bearing the presidential party; passes between the vessels of the fleet.

In addition to the flags from the ships and thousands of flagstaffs on buildings, the sunbeams were made to glisten all along the course by the waving of thousands of hats and handkerchiefs.

Workshops as well as business houses were deserted where their access to roofs was high enough to give views to the harbor and up the river, while all those who had the opportunity to get away joined the throng along the New York and New Jersey shores for closer inspection. In addition to the leading hotels, the interior decorations of the city hall, Maritime Exchange and chamber of commerce are very elaborate and fine.

As early as 7 o'clock crowds began to assemble in every conceivable place where the parade could be seen from. At this hour everything was hurry and bustle on the ships down the bay. During the night and even through the hours of the early morning the great ironclad vessels lay by, quiet and peaceful as the grave. There was only an occasional "all's well" from the officer of the watch or the creaking of an anchor chain to break the monotonous silence.

At 4 o'clock, however, the whole thing changed when two bells (4 o'clock) rang out on the flagship Philadelphia. The 300 Jack Tars who man this stanch vessel rubbed their eyes, rolled over once or twice in their hammocks and then bounced out on deck, ready for duty.

About 9 o'clock it became evident from the activity displayed aboard the Philadelphia that the start was soon to be made. Sailors were rushing here and there obeying commands. The vessels comprising the fleet covered quite a large area and the signals issued on the Philadelphia could not be seen by all the vessels. They were taken up, however, and passed along the line.

Shortly before the 10 o'clock bells began to ring the color man on the Philadelphia ran out the signal to get ready for the start, which was done by displaying the three letters M, N, H, or rather the flags which represent these letters in the international code. This was closely followed by an order to get the admirals commanding to have the anchors of the vessels raised. Once more the three flags ran up the mizzenmast of the Philadelphia, which to the experienced eye read: "All right, make the start."

The start was made promptly at 9:45. The two admirals and their flagships led the way at a rate of eight or nine knots an hour. A brisk breeze curled the water into white-capped breakers, but the magnificent ships glided along so smoothly that their motion scarcely seemed perceptible. A cable and a half length separated each ship from the other, and this distance was manifested with absolute precision.

At 10:15 the immense throng of people that fringed the Battery seawall saw a glittering brasswork, a show of cream white hulls, and buff-funnels and tall spars far, down the bay, and the word that the long looked for fleet was almost at hand was passed from mouth to mouth.

As the column proceeded up the river the leaders gradually reduced their speed, and there was a shortening of the intervals between the vessels. When the Philadelphia and Blake reached Ninety-eighth street the vessels were comparatively close together, but the Brazilian fleet had not yet passed the Battery. Before 2 o'clock all the ships had reached their allotted positions, and dropped anchor for today's review by President Cleveland. All the ocean steamers at the piers were dressed in the code of international signals, and made quite a contrast with the warships, which did not don their signal letters.

The arrangements made for the president and his party by members of the committee are as follows: C. C. Baldwin and Clarence W. Bowen will escort them from the Victoria hotel to the Dolphin, at the foot of Twenty-third street, where they will review the parade. Upon leaving the Dolphin the president will arrive at the foot of Ninety-sixth street. He will be escorted from that point to the Victoria hotel by Walter Stanton and J. Edward Simmons. At the Victoria hotel he will be turned over to the committee, who will escort him to the ball.

Arrangements for the big ball which is to be held in the Madison Square Garden are all completed. It has been decided that the music will begin at 10 o'clock. The mayor will enter the garden half an hour later with his escort. The invited guests will probably begin to arrive about 10:30 o'clock, and the president will arrive at 11:30 o'clock.

The most distinguished guests will be accompanied by an escort of the naval reserve.

The president will be met at the door by the chairman of the floor committee, Mr. Varnum, and in the center of the hall by the mayor, who will personally escort him to his box. The members of the cabinet will be escorted by the Hon. Benjamin F. Tracey, lately secretary of the navy.

The reception given to the officers of the visiting naval fleets and the Duke of Veragua by the Union League club, was a most brilliant affair. Nearly 1,000 people were present. The army, the navy and civil life were all represented.

Arrival of the President.

New York, April 27.—President and Mrs. Cleveland, members of the cabinet and other distinguished guests and their ladies arrived at 10:30. The train was an hour late and they declined to keep engagements at the Union League banquet but retired so as to be ready for the naval review.

Eriessons Statue Unveiled.

New York, April 27.—While the dedication of the large flagstaff at Navesink Highlands was a feature of the naval celebration Tuesday, the unveiling of the John Eriesson statue at the Battery with elaborate exercises and parade was the leading feature of yesterday.

GOLD GOING IN.

No Apprehension Felt by United States Treasury Officials.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Small offers of gold continue to be received at the treasury, coming principally from the south and west, and it is the belief of the officials of the department that they will continue. The situation is looked upon as being much better, especially in view of the improbability of any further gold shipments this week or next.

The fact that Secretary Carlisle has gone away is pointed to as an indication of his confidence in the situation, and during his absence no change of policy will be made. Assistant Secretary Hamlin will act as secretary while Mr. Carlisle is away.

Arranging a Conference.

New York, April 27.—There has been much comment on Wall street regarding the financial situation. It was in a great measure due to a false report that Secretary Carlisle would be here in advance of the presidential party. When it was learned that the secretary would not be ready for a conference until tomorrow, the talk subsided and arrangements were made for tomorrow's meeting.

IRON HALL CASE CONFIRMED.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 27.—The supreme court has passed upon the appealed Iron Hall case, and the decision handed down affirms the action of Judge Taylor in appointing a receiver. For such a case the opinion is not long. It simply takes up the exceptions serially and decides that there has been no error in the action of the trial court in the appointment of the receiver, or the admission of the disputed territory.

Receiver James Falley stated that he expects the receivers in the different states to now report to him, and that as soon as all have reported he will make a distribution under the order of the court. He has $750,000 in hand, and expects to receive nearly a million more from the branches and assets of the order. He says that all of the subordinate receiverships have been withholding payments to him until the case was decided.

The attorneys for Somerby will ask a rehearing, and if denied one will carry the case to the supreme court of the United States.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER.

Dr. Robert W. Buchanan Will Probably Die in the Electric Chair.

New York, April 27.—Dr. Robert W. Buchanan, who has been on trial for the past few weeks charged with the poisoning of his wife, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree. The jury was out nearly 24 hours, and their lengthy deliberation gave the defendant and his counsel the hope that they would at least disagree. The verdict was in the nature of a surprise.

Buchanan married a woman much older than himself. This woman had amassed considerable money through her proprietorship of a disorderly house in Newark, N. J. The couple did not live very happily together, and when the woman died suddenly under suspicious circumstances, leaving a will in which she bequeathed all her property to her husband, an investigation followed, which resulted in Buchanan's arrest and his subsequent trial ending in his conviction. Counsel has given notice of the usual exceptions and an appeal.

RESULT OF THE WRECK.

Five Persons Dead and Three Others Fatally Injured.

SOMERSET, Pa., April 27.—Five persons have died so far as the result of the catastrophe on the Bare Rocks railroad, and at least three others will die from their injuries. The names of the dead are: John A. Pile, farmer; Mrs. John A. Pile, Mary Pile, aged 12; Russell Neff, aged 9, and an Italian, name not known. Another unknown Italian is fatally injured.

OKLAHOMA CYCLONE.

Extent of the Disaster Just Being Learned.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE REPORTED.

Whole Villages Swept Away and Many Lives Lost—Hailstorms and Waterspouts Follow in the Wind's Wake—It Passes on Through Arkansas, Doing Great Damage.

OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T., April 27.—Communication has been partly restored and proves that the cyclones were very disastrous ones.

Two distinct cyclones, a terrific hailstorm and a waterspout combined to wreak awful destruction in the newly built towns of Oklahoma. It is reported that 62 lives were sacrificed. It is positive that 40 were killed, while several were fatally and scores seriously injured. The damage to property is incalculable.

The names of the victims so far as known are: Rev. J. M. Corn, Mrs. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Banks, Miss Ella, Jerry and Frank Banks, John O'Connor, wife, two sons and three daughters, the whole family of a Mr. Johnson consisting of five persons.

Orders for 31 coffins have been received here and at Norman. Supplies have been telegraphed for from other points.

The brunt of the storm was laid upon the prosperous little town of Norman, on the Santa Fe railroad, about 20 miles south of here. At that point 31 people were killed, dozens injured and the town almost completely destroyed. People were frenzied and can not give an estimate of their loss, and know nothing except to care for the dead and injured.

The first signs of the impending danger were seen late in the afternoon in a pall of dark clouds overshadowing the northwest for miles around, which further away to the west rushing could be seen the cyclone. Men left their business places and hurried to their homes, and all who could quickly sought the cyclone caves.

At 7:30 the storm swooped down on the town of Moore. Houses with precious lives were caught up and carried before the angry torment. Great trees were twisted off, and barns and fences and everything in its path were laid low.

Passing along for eight miles it struck the town of Norman, where the damage was repeated. Then on to Downs and Keokuk Falls, and through Pottawatomie county.

The house of J. O'Connor near Moore was destroyed and O'Connor and his wife and three children and five neighbors who had sought shelter in building were crushed to death. O'Connor's dead body was found a mile away. A schoolteacher who boarded there was carried two miles and her body fearfully crushed and torn.

The frame house of John Banks was torn to pieces and he was killed, while others of his family of six were badly injured, three of the children and Mrs. Banks fatally. The home of Henry Dyer was demolished.

West of Norman eight houses were demolished and five people badly injured. East of the stricken town two men and two women were killed. Around Norman, after the cyclone, a fearful hailstorm started in, and after it a violent rainstorm. It was too dark to search for victims and in the morning the men got quickly to work and commenced the rescue. Help from neighboring towns soon arrived, and before nightfall something like comfort was provided. Everything, however, is in confusion, and it will be impossible to gain a correct list of the casualties for some time yet.

Four houses were swept away in Payne county and thousands of dollars damage done to property, but nobody was killed.

The village of Keokuk is reported swept away, but no particulars are obtainable.

East of Norman five people were killed. One man was carried a long distance and hurled to the ground, breaking his neck. Several others were killed by houses falling on them. One man was hurled into a creek and drowned. Eighteen or twenty farms were swept clean of everything.

Near Moore one man was killed and several were injured, and a number of houses were demolished.

Along the line of the Cherokee strip the tents of the boomers were carried away and wagons wrecked, but no one was injured.

It Passes Through Arkansas.

FORT SMITH, Ark., April 27.—A cyclone swept on the little town of Jensen, 14 miles south of here, about midnight, blowing down nine buildings and damaging several others. Three or four freight cars were blown from the track, and a portion of the Frisco depot carried away.

Considerable damage was also done at the mining town of Jenny Lind. One man is reported injured there and one child at Jensen. Reports as to the damage through the country in the track of the storm are meager.

ST. PAUL, April 27.—Another big snowstorm is raging in the northern part of the state. Eight inches of snow is reported to have fallen at Brainerd, and it is still coming down. In this city light rains have been falling for the past 24 hours.

GOLD IN OREGON.

A Million of the Tawny Stuff Said to Be in Sight.

CENTRAL POINT, Or., April 27.—This city is fast becoming depopulated, and the whole country is wild with excitement over the rich gold strike located within two miles from this place. It is the richest find since 1852.

Gold is being taken out in fabulous quantities from the Hersiberger claim, and the pay streak seems to grow richer. Over $500 worth of coarse gold was taken out in two hours yesterday. Six rich pockets are being worked within a radius of a mile, and single miners are securing $50 to $200 per day. One million dollars' worth of the yellow metal is in sight.

Probably a Foul Crime.

ASHLAND, Ky., April 27.—Last week Wirt Cassidy, a prominent stock raiser and farmer of Pike county, Ky., came down with a large drove of fine cattle, which he sold to Vinson Calvin of Cannonsburg, for somewhere in the neighborhood of $1,000. Cassidy was accompanied by a negro who has been in his employ for years and enjoyed his fullest confidence. Since the day he cashed the check at Catlettsburg both have been missing, and Cassidy's relatives believe both have been murdered for the money.

Big Flood Feared.

JACKSONVILLE, Ills., April 27.—This whole section of country is under water and fears of a repetition of last year's floods are entertained. A heavy storm prevailed all night. The rain fell in torrents and damage is suffered all around. An insignificant brook on one side of the town has overflowed its banks and ruined a number of houses, and their occupants will have to be taken off in rafts, as there are no boats about the place. Farmers are very much discouraged over the prospects.

Poasant Buried Alive.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 27.—A peasant was buried alive recently in the village of Maruten, government of Kalooga. The discovery of the fact was through peasants, who, hearing sounds coming from the grave, notified the authorities. When the body was exhumed a horrible sight was revealed. The shroud was found torn to pieces. The face of the corpse was badly lacerated, one of the eyes was torn out and some of the fingers were bitten off.

Closed With a Dinner.

New York, April 27.—The National Civil Service league concluded its two days' session with a dinner to the visiting delegates. The Hon. Carl Schurz presided, and 150 guests were at the tables. Among the notable delegates were Charles J. Bonaparte of Baltimore, W. Dudley Foulke of Richmond, Ind., Lucius R. Swift of Indianapolis, Charles Noble Gregory of Madison, Wis., and D. W. Kord of Chicago.

Death of the Boston's Commander.

New York, April 27.—Captain Gilbert Crandell Wilts, who commanded the Boston at Honolulu during the Hawaiian troubles and led the marines who, at Minister Stevens' request, hoisted the American flag, establishing a protectorate over the island, died suddenly at his residence yesterday. He was in his 55th year. Cerebral hemorrhage was the cause of death.

The Same Old Drunk.

TROY, N. Y., April 27.—John L. Sullivan appeared here last night. He was drunk all day and was ordered out of the Troy House, where quarters were engaged for him. The services of three policemen were necessary to induce him to leave the hotel. He appeared on the stage last night in "The Man from Boston," but what he said was in the main incomprehensible.

Nine Men Killed.

DETROIT, April 27.—A special to The News from Menominee, Mich., says that news has just reached there that nine men have been killed in a log drive on the Fence river. Particulars are hard to obtain, but it is said that Charles Hamilton, foreman; Charles McAllister and Fred Ingram, all of Marinette, Wis., are among the victims.

Rumors About a Railroad.

New York, April 27.—Rumors of a receiver for the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan railroad were freely circulated around Wall street, but the officers of the company positively deny that there is any probability of a receiver being appointed. The interest on the consolidated bonds is due on May 1, and it is stated will be paid.

Defalcation Discovered.

BOWLING GREEN, O., April 27.—George Whitman, treasurer of Perrysburg township, has just been discovered by his bondsmen to be a defaulter of $3,800 of the funds of the township. A year ago he claimed he was robbed of $1,200, and a man named Keller is in the Ohio penitentiary for the offense. His bondsmen have taken a mortgage on all property to secure them.

An Order to Be Dissolved.

CANTON, O., April 27.—Order Adelpia, after the style of the Iron Hall, is about to collapse. The directors have commenced proceedings for dissolution. Its only footing was in Alliance, where it had 200 members and over $25,000 on hand and no debts. The members will realize more than they invested.

Canada Discounting Our Money.

OTTAWA, April 27.—The banks handling United States silver certificates have decided to accept them hereafter only at a discount of 1 per cent.

MINERS TO STRIKE.

No Scale Agreed Upon at a Conference.

POMEROY DISTRICT INVOLVED.

May 1 the Day Set to Lay Down Their Picks and Shovels—This Means a Suspension of Manufacturing and a Stagnation of Business—Other Labor News.

POMEROY, O., April 27.—The coal operators of the Pomeroiy bend, and a large number of miners, held an all-day meeting on contract prices. The miners now get $2.25 per hundred bushels for all kinds of coal. On this price they asked an advance of 25 cents per hundred. The operators offered last year's prices on coal for foreign shipment and a cut of 25 cents per hundred on coal mined for local consumption.

They were unable to agree and the miners resolved to go out on a strike May 1. This means a suspension of business at all the salt works, the rolling mills and other manufacturing plants, a general stagnation of business in this city and a vast deal of suffering in many families. The Camden works, four miles below here, on the West Virginia side of the river, are the only mines not affected by the strike.

Chief Arthur and the Ann Arbor Strike.

CLEVELAND, April 27.—Grand Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was shown a telegram from Toledo, stating that it was rumored there that he had declared the Ann Arbor strike off. "I have just returned from St. Paul," replied Chief Arthur, "and know nothing about it. The matter is not in my hands, so far as that is concerned. The brotherhood did not declare the strike on, and of course will not declare it off. The strike is being conducted by the men on the Ann Arbor road."

Toledo Cases Postponed.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Colonel Tom Harper, general counsel for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, who came here last week to appeal Judge Ricks' decision at Toledo to the supreme court, has gone to his home at Terre Haute, Ind., as have also his associates in the case, Hon. Frank Hurd and Judge Barber of Toledo. The case will not be heard till October.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

A Man Badly Done Up and Buried in a Hayloft.

NORTHFIELD, Minn., April 27.—An attempt to murder J. S. Allyn, agent of the United States Express company, was made here. He went into a hayloft to feed his horse and was met by a tramp who with a sharp hatchet cut deep gashes in his head and body. Then the tramp buried him deep in the hay, believing his victim dead.

Blood running through a crevice in the ceiling led to the discovery some hours later. Allyn was dug out of the hay where he had laid unconscious three hours. One cut on the top of his head was seven inches long. Allyn is well known, being one of the early settlers. He will not recover.

Alleged Burglar Captured.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 27.—For several months numerous houses have been burglarized, but the efforts of the police to locate the criminal were unsuccessful. Tuesday Mrs. Evans' boarding-house was robbed of several gold watches and considerable money. Suspicion fell upon Walter McClelland, a shoemaker, and yesterday he was arrested and his room searched. A quantity of jewelry, hardware, shoe-uppers, candy, books, etc., were recovered. McClelland claims to have resided near Olney, Ills. He has always borne a good reputation here.

Section Man Struck by Lightning.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., April 27.—Milton Russell, a section man, employed by the Indianapolis and Vincennes Railway company, was struck by lightning, burning his clothing and blistering his left side. His watch was pierced and the chain was melted. Russell was unconscious for some time, but he recovered his senses and will live. His watch did not stop running. The other section men who were with him were also shocked.

A post mortem revealed heart failure as the cause of his death. It is said that he had a son and daughter living in Cleveland, and his children's names were tattooed on his arms.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Local showers, followed by clearing weather during the day; brisk westerly winds; warmer in eastern Ohio.

CONGRESSMAN McCREARY has demonstrated that he is one of the ablest members of the Monetary Commission, and the President made no mistake in re-appointing him.

Not a single element of competition remains in the business of producing rubber, so far as this country is concerned. The Rubber Trust is supreme. Everybody who uses rubber in any form must pay tribute to it. Down with the rubber robbers and all others of their class.

One rule of the Pension Office will illustrate a feature of pension frauds with which the people have slight acquaintance, says the Chicago Times. The rule referred to provides that nothing an applicant has sworn to in an application for a life insurance policy shall be used against him in an application for a pension. In the mere statement of the rule is found proof of corruption in granting pensions. Everybody understands that the very nature of life insurance requires that the insured shall be of sound mind and body. Solvent companies do not insure persons afflicted with chronic diseases. Yet it is unquestioned by those best acquainted with the pension lists that more than 100,000 pensions have been granted to persons holding heavy life insurance policies.

The Legislature.

In the House Mr. Halbert introduced a new bill, which provides for the organization and government of towns having less than 1,000 population until they can be assigned to one or the other classes provided by law.

Mr. May sent up a bill amending the private corporation act providing that the Railroad Commissioners shall keep an office at the seat of government and allowing them a Secretary at an annual salary of $1,500 and that the Commissioners shall each receive an annual salary of $2,000 and traveling expenses while on duty.

Of Interest to Railroad Companies.

The new corporation law says that all railroad companies shall keep their ticket offices open for the sale of tickets at least thirty minutes immediately preceding the departure of all passenger trains from every regular passenger depot from which such trains start, or at which they stop. It also provides that every company operating a railroad in this State shall provide a convenient and suitable waiting-room and water-closets at all depots in cities and towns and at such other stations as the Railroad Commission may require on its lines, and keep and maintain the same in decent order and repair.

Great Event in Cincinnati.

The new City Hall, which has become the pride of Cincinnati, rivaling the Art Museum, Zoological Garden and even the Music Hall, is completed, and will be formally dedicated May 13th, the oration being delivered by Hon. M. E. Ingalls. The event will be celebrated by a great street parade, which Cincinnati excels in. The police department and the civil societies of Cincinnati and the United States troops at Fort Thomas will join in the procession. The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway will sell excursion tickets at half fare from Huntington and intermediate stations, good going on trains 17 and 19, May 13; good returning on regular trains until May 15.

KENTUCKY'S TOBACCOES.

The tobacco exhibit for Kentucky's display in the Agricultural Building at the World's Fair has been completed, and will be shipped to Chicago this week.

The display was prepared by a committee appointed by the World's Fair Commissioners, and contains 300 samples of tobacco from all parts of the State, representing every grade and variety grown.

To each sample is attached a card showing the trade name, who grew the sample, who contributed it and its average price per pound. Thus all information desired by those interested can be seen at a glance.

The Modern Way

Commends itself to the well-formed, to do pleasantly and effectively what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy Syrup of Figs.

Odd Jobs a Specialty.

The latest thing devised to lessen the labor of living and the cares of a housekeeper is a corporation known as the Odd Job and Tinkering company, limited. The parent office of the concern is naturally enough in New York, but according to its prospectus it has, or will have, subsidiary companies in all the large cities.

It is a charming idea—this odd job company—and the man who originated the scheme deserves a vote of thanks for his ingenuity. Though limited in its liabilities, its scope of usefulness is not curtailed, but is as limitless as human wants may necessitate.

If Mary takes it into her head to visit her cousin on wash day and remains absent for a week, a postal card to the odd job company at once brings a substitute who will perform all the multitudinous duties of the "down stairs girl" with expedition and dispatch. And so it goes on through every department of the household.

"You send a postal card," says the advertisement calling attention to the company, "and we will do the rest." This remainder, as further specified, includes housecleaning, painting, mason and locksmithing work, clerical work and miscellaneous work, and other things too numerous to mention, but all of the greatest importance in the economy of living in a well appointed house.—New York Herald.

Making a French Cook.

The making of a man cook in France is a lengthy and tedious process. When a young man decides to pursue a culinary career he selects his nominal instructor, to whom he pays a fee of $500. The aspirant is first assigned to the vegetable cook, who teaches him how to prepare the raw materials. When he has mastered this, he is initiated into the mystery of cooking them. This thoroughly learned he studies the way of cutting up raw meat, of preparing fish and how to stuff, dress, truss and lard game and poultry. When he has thoroughly learned this, he is placed before the range, where he receives instruction in the various processes of broiling, frying, roasting and baking.

When he graduates from this department, he passes under the control of the second cook, who reveals to him the mysteries of sauces and soups. The interest of this functionary in his pupil it is necessary to accelerate with liberal and frequent tips. The young man is now turned back to the pastry cook, to whom he serves a long apprenticeship in all that pertains to the concoction of sweets, pastries and ices. This completes his culinary education, and he is prepared to assume the role of a competent cook.—New York Sun.

John Nihle's Brave Deed.

An old comrade of mine, Sergeant John Nihle, attached to the United States cavalry, was out with a scouting party, and they were surprised by a party of Indians four times their number. They exchanged shots with them, wheeled about and made for camp, some miles distant.

The Indians continued firing, and finally one of the white men was hit and fell from his horse. Quick as a flash Nihle dismounted, dropped on his knee and fired at the foremost Indian, bringing him to the ground. Jumping up he placed his wounded comrade across his horse, jumped up behind him, and by keeping up a continual fire at his pursuers carried him into camp. Congress awarded Nihle a medal and also a certificate setting forth the facts of his heroism. He was the champion shot of the army for several years, his left breast being decorated with medals to the value of $700, but the one he prizes most is the simple one of bronze awarded by congress.

John is very modest and as brave as a lion, and as such he is regarded by his comrades at Willets Point.—Cor. Now York Press.

Buried by a Landslide.

EASTON, Pa., April 27.—A landslide occurred in a slate quarry at Walnutport, near this place, and Allen Hall and Simon Snyder were buried in the debris. Hall, who was 35 years of age and married, was taken out of the quarry dead. Snyder was so badly injured that he is not expected to recover.

A general rise of prices in the corn markets of Vienna and Buda-Pesth, has resulted from the severe drought. Rain has fallen in several districts, but not in large quantities.

Ex-Representative McKimney of New Hampshire called at the state department and took the oath of office as minister to Colombia. He will leave for his post of duty in a few weeks.

At Grand Rapids, Mich., eastern creditors and bondholders were given three judgments, aggregating $120,000, against the Hydraulic company, and Thomas O'Brien was appointed receiver.

United States Marshal Walker of Brooklyn is making arrangements for the appointment of a couple of hundred deputies to arrest all Chinese who persist in refusing to register themselves in the revenue office on or before May 5.

River News.

Still rising at this point.

Capt. John Barrett sold the new barge, Oscar Barrett, to Messrs. Hugo, Loomis & Co. It is reported that the price was $10,000.

The Sherley took tobacco from Ripley on her down trip this week at 50 cents a hoghead. It's anything to down the Stanley.

The Ashland Signal says: "There are probably 50,000 logs of fine timber in the creeks emptying into Twelve Pole, which will come out on the first rise."

After one trip on the Sherley, Capt. McAllister was relieved of her command, and returned to his old love, the City of Madison. Capt. Sam Bryant will leave the Big Sandy, put on his fighting clothes, and run the Sherley. Capt. James Martin leaves the City of Madison and goes to the Big Sandy.

UNITED

The Nuptials Solemnized at the Central Presbyterian Church Last Evening.

The Central Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening.

At 8:30 o'clock the destinies of Dr. Peter Gordon Smoot and Miss Lillie May Thomas were united, the marriage ceremony being solemnized by Rev. W. O. Cochrane, pastor of the church.

The altar was prettily arranged with evergreens and flowering plants, there being a profusion of beautiful lilies in the decorations. Mr. G. W. Blatterman presided at the organ.

The ushers were Messrs. Harry Owens, Harry Barkley, Louis Smoot and Providence Pogue, the latter of Cincinnati. Mr. Elgin Smoot, of Winfield, Kan., and Mr. Edward Geisel, of this city, officiated as groomsmen while Miss Lolla Thomas and Miss Lillie Smoot, sisters of the bride and groom, were the bridesmaids.

The ushers, followed by the attendants, came in couples through the chapel in the front part of the church and as they filed down the aisles, the bride and groom entered from the main door, and approached the altar. The bridal party formed a pretty group during the ceremony, the contracting parties and the officiating minister being the central figures, with the ushers and attendants at either side.

The wedding march from Mendelssohn was played as the bridal party entered, and they retired to the music of the Swedish wedding march.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's uncle Mr. John N. Thomas, where the newly-wedded couple received the congratulations of their friends and relatives. A few hours later Dr. and Mrs. Smoot left on the steamer Telegraph for Cincinnati. From there they go to Louisville and other points on their bridal trip.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Smoot, of Fern Leaf. He is a graduate of Centre College, and also of the Homeopathic School of Medicine of New York, and is one of the leading physicians of that school in this city. His bride is a niece and adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Thomas, and is one of Maysville's loveliest young ladies. The happy couple will make their home at Mrs. Dr. Holton's on West Second street.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Mills and Miss Jennie Drake, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Horton, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Amisden, of Versailles, Ky.

WHAT WE DRINK.

Astonishing Adulteration of Coffee Discovered by the Agricultural Department.

The experts of the Agricultural Department recently had their attention turned to the subject of artificial and adulterated coffee. A scientific investigation has been made under the direction of Professor H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the department, with astonishing results. Thirty samples from as many different stores were obtained, of what the dealers declared to be pure coffee. Of these twenty-six samples, or 86 2/3 per cent., were adulterated, or if there is included a sample containing no coffee at all, this percentage is increased to 90. In fifteen samples the purchaser obtained half or less than half the coffee he paid for. The retail price of this bogus coffee was equal to that asked for the pure article. A sample purchased from a leading grocer as Rio for 25 cents a pound contained no coffee at all. Another purchased as Mocha and Java at 25 cents a pound was adulterated 75 per cent. The worst adulteration was shown in ground coffee, but three samples of roasted whole coffee purchased by them proved to be mixed with imitation coffees.

Alexander J. Wedderman, special agent of the Department of Agriculture, reports that the artificial coffee bean is identical with the genuine green or roasted coffee. It is almost impossible to detect the fraud with the eye. It is molded by machinery in the same manner as druggists' pills. Having little or no taste or odor, its only mission is to increase the bulk and weight of the genuine article. It was originally of German manufacture, but has lately been made in large quantities in New York, Philadelphia, Jersey City and elsewhere. The sale of the bean has been tremendous.

Death of Mrs. Emily Austin.

Mrs. Emily Austin, wife of Mr. James Austin, Sr., died last evening about 6 o'clock at the residence of their son, Mr. Charles Austin, with whom she had been making her home of late. She had a severe attack of the grip during the prevalence of that disease sixteen months ago, and never fully recovered.

Deceased was born in Bracken County, February 6, 1824, and was in her seventieth year. Her maiden name was Rice. Her husband survives her and she leaves six children, two daughters and four sons, among them Messrs. William and Bruce Austin of the BULLETIN office. One daughter lives at Falmouth.

The funeral will occur to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Charles Austin, No. 320 East Third. The services will be conducted by Rev. D. P. Holt, pastor of the M. E. Church with which denomination deceased united when she was sixteen years of age. Friends of the family invited. Burial in Maysville Cemetery.

Seldom Seen in Maysville.

There are but few really great writers who have been gifted with the art of speaking. James Whitcomb Riley is, however, an exception to the rule. There is a tenderness, an exquisite blending of voice and soul, in hearing him read one of his beautiful poems that can not be described. The first glimpse of the poet as he bows modestly to his audience enlists their fullest sympathy, and when his words, quaint and picturesque as the homely characters he introduces, fall upon his hearers, he makes an immediate conquest. His visit to this city is a most unusual occasion. Such men as Riley are seldom seen here, and the people of Maysville and surrounding country should not miss the opportunity of hearing him next Monday night. Admission only 50 cents. Reserved seats 75. Tickets now on sale at Nelson's.

She was seventeen years of age, and was an estimable young lady. The funeral will occur to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock at the family residence. Burial at Washington.

SAYS the Owensboro Messenger: "One farmer who owns only about 250 acres and diversified his crops, has sold the product of his last year's planting for something like $12,000. He had $3,000 worth of wheat; his potatoes yielded as much more, while the balance was realized from corn, hay and grass seeds. He raised very little tobacco." Diversify your crops.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS.

Union Pacific Directors Appointed and Other Places Filled.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The president has announced the following appointments:

To be government directors of the Union Pacific Railway company—Henry F. Dimock of New York, Don M. Dickinson of Michigan, J. W. Doane of Illinois, Fitzhugh Lee of Virginia, Joseph W. Paddock of Nebraska.

Otto Doederlein of Illinois, to be consul of the United States at Leipzig. David G. Brown, to be collector of customs for the district of Montana and Idaho.

The following postmasters were also appointed:

There is quite a little story connected with the Columbus removal. Waltz was originally appointed by Cleveland. When Harrison came in, by representations that he was a reformer in politics and by appointment of a number of Republicans in place of his Democratic employees, he was enabled to hold on to the postoffice. After Cleveland's election he sent letters to his Republican employees that for patronage reasons it would be necessary for them to resign and make way for Democrats. The civil service commission hearing of it secured his removal.

He Will Not Accept.

DETROIT, April 27.—Hon. Don M. Dickinson, who has been appointed as one of the government directors of the Union Pacific railway by President Cleveland, states positively that he will not accept it.

AN EXCITED COMMUNITY.

Mysterious Notes That Border on White Capillism.

FRANKLIN, Ky., April 27.—The Knob neighborhood of this county is agog with excitement over some threats that have been made against one of its prominent citizens. Mr. William Phillips. Friday night last his residence was entered, himself chloroformed, a little money taken and a note left stating that the parties would next take the meat from his smokehouse. He removed this during the next day, and on the following morning another note was found informing him that his house or barn would next be burned.

His neighbors were called in the next night to watch, and next morning a third note was found on the gatepost, containing a threat to kill Mr. Phillips on sight. He is being guarded every night by his neighbors, but no further developments have as yet taken place. He is a peaceable, honorable citizen, and so far as he knows has no enemies. The community is highly indignant, and the guilty parties will be roughly dealt with if caught.

WHISKY TRUST MOVEMENT.

War Will Be at Once Renewed Against Outside Distillers.

CHICAGO, April 27.—War has been renewed by the Distillers' and Feeders' association, otherwise known as the whisky trust, against all outside distillers, and from present indications the war of the conflict will shake the market within the next few days.

By the action of a meeting of the directors of the American Distillers' and Cattle Feeders' association held yesterday it is more than probable that one of the most gigantic fights ever witnessed in the whisky market has been inaugurated.

This action was the determination to issue bonds to meet the necessary expenses to buy out the present distributors of the company's product, and if this can not be accomplished then to make the company its own distributor and establish the plants throughout the country. It is pretty safe to assume that the bonds will be issued for any sum ranging from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000. The gathering adjourned to meet again next month.

Illicit Distilleries Raided.

NASHVILLE, April 27.—A letter has been received from Deputy Collector J. D. Tarrant of the internal revenue department stating that he, with a posse, made a raid on illicit distilleries, near Harriman, last Saturday. Three complete plants were found and cut up and 10 men arrested. The official report of the raid has not yet been received.

An Old Veteran Gone.

DAYTON, O., April 27.—Eugene C. Beaver, who for five years served as deputy county clerk, died yesterday, aged 51 years, leaving a wife and children. He served three years in the Ninety-third Ohio volunteer infantry, and was a member of Al Mason post, G. A. R., of Miami Springs.

Liberty Bell in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, April 27.—The reception at Pittsburgh yesterday evening was a brilliant termination to a memorable day in the progress of the Liberty bell from Philadelphia to Chicago. Patriotic music and enthusiastic cheering greeted the old bell at every station.

Troops Still on Duty.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 27.—Troops have not yet been ordered away from James City, but it is expected that they will tomorrow, amicable terms of settlement having been made. It is necessary that some time be consumed in having leases properly signed.

Poisoned Canned Meats.

MADISON, Ind., April 27.—Elizabeth Bentz, aged 50, a resident of the East End, died from the effects of poison eaten in canned meat. This makes 10 cases of a similar nature in Madison within the past week.

Railroad Property Burned.

BOSTON, April 27.—Fire in the hay shed of the Boston and Maine railroad, in Rutherford avenue, Charlestown, entailed a loss estimated at upwards of $45,000. Two freight cars were destroyed.

Booth Improving.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The latest report from Mr. Booth was that he is still improving.
